GREETING

In November 1989, WOOK-IL CORPORATION entered the screen print industry market, selling machines, printers, and materials..

The 21st century industrial structure, which underwent real-time changes and development, has led to changes in the nation's core industries, shipbuilding, electricity, electronics, electronics and semiconductor industries.

대표이사 김성욱

As a result, the screen printing industry requires a lot of change.

In response to this need, we are focusing on developing production facilities and developing production technologies suitable for the site. In particular, it has helped develop more sophisticated printing presses and peripherals to develop the Korean mobile phone industry since 2000.

We will do our best with enthusiasm and effort.
